

Environmental Project Engineer

This intermediate engineering position is for the individual who takes an increasing responsibility Project Management. You will perform duties related to conducting Phase I and Phase II Environmental Site Assessments (ESAs) and regulatory compliance services. You will also prepare proposals and reports, participate in marketing, sales and business development efforts, and take part in other environmental consulting projects.

Desired Experience

- Minimum of 5 years experience, including 3 or more years managing environmental projects
- Experience with business development and have an established network of clients
- 3+ years experience in developing scope of work, cost estimates and proposals
- Experience with designing abatement projects
- Staff supervisory experience a plus

Knowledge, Skills and Abilities

- Bachelor's degree in Environmental, Civil, Chemical Engineering or all other relevant fields from an accredited curriculum. Advanced degree a plus.
- Professional Engineers license a plus
- AHERA asbestos inspector in Missouri and Illinois is a plus
- Lead inspector in Missouri and Illinois is a plus
- Additional asbestos and lead licenses and certifications a plus
- Excellent presentation, verbal and written communication skills
- Strong analytical and problem solving skills
- Apply standard engineering techniques, procedures and criteria on projects
- Supervise several environmental technicians
- Conducts environmental inspections for asbestos, lead and other hazardous materials

We consider applicants for all positions without regard to race, color, religion, national origin, handicap, age, sex, or veteran status. If offered the position and accepted, must pass: drug screen, driver evaluation criteria and verification of educational degrees and licenses/certifications.

Qualified applicants please submit a resume along with salary history to anthony@humanmanagementsvcs.com